

- chord discretised with  $n\text{ChordPanels}$  segments. Points  $x$  are the extreme points of these panels and are useful to compute points on the surface of the airfoil, exploiting analytical expressions of the mean camber line and thickness of the airfoil.

